Frequently Asked Questions

What is the McGill University Trust?

The McGill University Trust was established as a UK registered charitable trust in 1994, Charity Number 1044904, to provide a convenient way for UK-based alumni and friends to make donations to McGill, and for these donors and McGill to obtain the tax benefits derived from the Gift Aid program administered by HM Revenue and Customs (HMRC).

What are the McGill University Trust UK Scholarship and Bursary Awards?

The Trust created these renewable scholarships and bursaries to attract and support prospective undergraduate students from the UK. They are granted based on scholastic achievement or financial need.

Can I direct my donation?

Yes, there are options under the Make Your Gift Today section overleaf. The Trustees can direct some of the overall donation monies raised to projects that promote McGill in the UK.

What is Gift Aid and how do McGill and donors benefit?

Gift Aid increases the value of donations to UK registered charities by allowing such charities to reclaim basic rate tax on gifts from UK taxpayers; a £100 Gift Aid donation is worth £125 to the Trust.

Higher rate tax payers can claim further benefits from Gift Aid through their tax return up to the total amount of tax paid. A 40% tax-rate payer making a £100 donation can claim back £25, so the net amount of the donor's contribution is £75, while the total gift to McGill would be £125.

Gift Aid provides material benefits to both McGill, by the Trust passing on the enhanced value of donations, and to higher rate tax donors, by reducing the net cost of their donations.

£100 + 25% from Gift Aid = a new value of £125

I pay UK taxes, but I'm domiciled for tax purposes in another country - do the tax benefits still apply?

Yes. If you live in the UK but are not domiciled in the UK for tax purposes, and you pay UK taxes, the Trust is able to claim Gift Aid on your donation, up to the amount of total tax paid, on the gross equivalent value of the donation. For further information, please contact us (see below).

Are donations paid directly to McGill eligible for Gift Aid?

No, such donations are not eligible for Gift Aid. To make a donation in a currency other than pounds sterling, please contact us.
