

NOTE: The following wording has been prepared for the convenience of the donor. We encourage you to consider this suggested wording/language carefully together with your legal advisers in the context of your wider will and any other testamentary arrangements.

McGill University Trust
United Kingdom
Residuary Gift Wording

- The Executors¹ shall hold the Trust Fund upon trust for McGill University Trust (registered charity number 1044904) (the 'Selected Charity') and I request the Selected Charity, but without imposing any binding trust or legal obligation, to use the Trust Fund for its general charitable purposes².
- Subject to the provisions of s311 of the Charities Act 2011, if at the date of my death the Selected Charity is no longer in existence or is subject to a winding-up order, the Executors shall hold the Trust Fund upon trust for McGill University, a public university located at 845 Sherbrooke St W, Montreal, Quebec H3A 0G4, Canada.
- The receipt of any trustee for the time being of the Selected Charity, or of any substituted charity to which the legacy is paid, shall be a full discharge to the Executors.

[insert into 'Definitions' section of Will]

The 'Trust Fund' shall mean:

- (a) the residue of the estate of [insert name], after the payment of all debts, funeral, testamentary and administration expenses and legacies;
- (b) all money, investments or other property paid or transferred by any person to, or so as to be under the control of, and, in either case, accepted by the Executors as additions;
- (c) all accumulations (if any) of income added to the Trust Fund; and
- (d) the money, investments and property from time to time representing the above.'

¹ Amend to 'Trustees' if the Will provides for the Executors to transfer the Trust Fund to Trustees.

² Amend to refer to a restricted purpose within MUT's objects if relevant.
